Organizational Change

PONTIAC, MI – We are thrilled to share some exciting news about the leadership team at Williams International, underscoring our commitment to innovation, excellence, and growth.

Gregg Williams has been appointed as Chairman and Chief Visioneering Officer. In this role, Gregg will spearhead our corporate and product strategy, serving as the technical authority to drive next-generation innovations and business structures. His visionary leadership will continue to guide Williams International on its path of dynamic growth and groundbreaking advancements.

We are also delighted to announce that John Sordyl has been named President and CEO, reporting directly to Gregg Williams. John has been an integral part of the Williams International family since 2002, most recently serving as Executive Vice President, Customer Experience. His dedication and proven leadership have been pivotal in enhancing our customer relationships, and we are confident that under his guidance, Williams International will continue to thrive and exceed expectations.

These strategic appointments reflect our unwavering commitment to delivering exceptional value to our customers while reinforcing our position as a leader in the industry. As we continue on our exciting journey, we are more focused than ever on developing innovative solutions and strengthening our partnerships.
